

ENDNOTES:

- 1-Levin, Kevin M, When It Comes to Historical Markers, Every Word Matters. Online Smithsonian Magazine July 6 2017. <https://www.smithsonianmag.com/history/when-it-comes-historical-markers-every-word-matters-180963973/>
- 2-PHMC Historical Marker Text Evaluation Report – December 2, 2020, Pennsylvania State Historic Preservation Office, Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, accessed October 5, 2021, <https://www.phmc.pa.gov/Preservation/About/Documents/Historical%20Marker%20Policy%20Adopted%2009092020.pdf>
- 3-Beyer, George, Celebrating Fifty Years of State Historical Markers. Online Pennsylvania Heritage Magazine, Summer, 1996. <http://paheritage.wpengine.com/issue/summer-1996/>
- 4-Robinson, John K. and Karen Galle, A Century of Marking History: 100 Years of the PA Historical Marker Program, Pennsylvania Heritage Magazine, Fall 2014, Volume XL, Number 4.
- 5-Pennsylvania Historical Commission, First Report of the Historical Commission of Pennsylvania. 1915. New Era, Lancaster.
- 6-Ibid.
- 7-Pennsylvania Historical Commission. Second Report of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission. 1918.
- 8-Pennsylvania Historical Commission. Conserving Pennsylvania's Historic Past. Commission Bulletin 3, 1939 Harrisburg.
- 9-Pennsylvania Historical Commission. Report and recommendations Concerning Historical Markers. Pennsylvania State Archives RG-13, Historical Marker Program Reports, Contracts, Correspondence and Miscellaneous Records, 1924-1945, Box A0107274, Folder 7.
- 10-Stevens, S. K., Memo to Pennsylvania Historians. October 12, 1945. Pennsylvania State Archives RG 13, Correspondence and Miscellaneous Records Relating to Historical Roadside Markers. 1945-1953, Box A0107288, Folder 13.
- 11-Stevens, S. K., Pennsylvania Marks its Historic Sites. Pennsylvania State Archives RG-13, Historical Marker Program Reports, Contracts, Correspondence and Miscellaneous Records, 1924-1945, Box A0107274, Folder 2.
- 12-Ibid.
- 13-Ibid.
- 14-Ibid.
- 15-Ibid.